Hot Shot Business – Take a Shot at Success!

Forget space aliens and race cars – here's a game that gives kids skills they can use for the rest of their lives. Hot Shot Business is a fast-paced simulation game for budding entrepreneurs, where kids open their own pet spa, skateboard factory, or comic shop.

Young business owners start marketing campaigns; change products, services, and prices; and most importantly, respond quickly to demanding customers and big news events. They've got to think fast and act even faster to take advantage of opportunities and keep their business growing!
